- 11.2.3. When 8 or more races have been completed, a boat's series score will be the total of her race scores excluding her two worst scores.

12. SUPPORT BOATS

- 12.1. All coach and spectator boats are required to register at the Regatta Office. The registration costs are 100 Euro per boat and have to be paid at the Regatta Office. The registration form is available before the event on the event website www.cadet2011.org.
- 12.2. An exclusion zone for all coach and spectator boats will be operated during racing.
- 12.3. Coach and spectator boats will be required to display their national flags.
- 12.4. The sailing instructions will provide what penalties may be applied to boats associated with coach or spectator boats that infringe the requirements applying to them.

- 12.5. The event organizers will provide adequate safety cover for both fleets of sailors. However, in exceptional circumstances the Safety Officer on the water may request the assistance of coach and spectator boats. To facilitate this, each National Cadet Association must register with the race office before the morning launch, the details of those members ribs afloat each day that are able to assist in rescue if requested. The race office will issue a time schedule and instructions for the crews.

13. BERTHING

- 13.1. Boats shall be kept in their assigned places in the boat park.

14. RADIO COMMUNICATION

- 14.1. A boat shall neither make radio transmissions while racing nor receive radio communications not available to all boats. This restriction also applies to mobile telephones.

15. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

- 15.1. Competitors participate in the regatta entirely at their own risk. See rule 4 of the RRS, 'Decision to Race'. The organizing authority will not accept any liability for material damage or personal injury or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during, or after the regatta. In addition to this the following is applicable:
- 15.1.1. A boat is entirely responsible for her own safety, whether afloat or ashore, and nothing, whether in the Notice of Race or the Sailing Instructions or anywhere else, reduces this responsibility. In this paragraph and the following paragraphs, wherever the context so permits, 'boat' includes the helm and crew and their parents or guardians.
- 15.1.2. It is for the boat to decide whether she is fit to sail in the conditions in which she will find herself. By launching or going to sea, the boat confirms that she is fit for those conditions and that her crew is competent to sail and compete in them.
- 15.1.3. Nothing done or omitted to be done by the organizers can reduce the responsibility of the boat nor will make the organizers responsible for any loss, damage, death or personal injury, however it may have occurred, as a result of the boat taking part in the racing or other parts of the event. The organizers encompass everyone helping to run the events and their associated activities, afloat or ashore, and include the organizing authority, the race committee, the race officer, patrol boats and beach masters.
- 15.1.4. The provision of rescue boats does not relieve the boats of its responsibilities.
- 15.1.5. The fact that the race committee conducts inspections of a boat does not reduce the responsibilities of the boat set out in these conditions.
- 15.1.6. The race committee may hold a boat ashore, or require a boat to go ashore at any time when afloat, whether racing or not, if it considers that:
- a) The boat, the equipment or the clothing of helm and/or crew, or
 - b) The physical condition of the helm and/or crew is not adequate for the conditions.
- Such boats will be scored DNC, DNS or DNF as appropriate.
